Watson Land Co. leases space to freight-forwarders OHL

Watson Land Company, the Carson developer of industrial properties, leased a 148,725-square-foot space to freight-forwarding company OHL.

This is OHL's second lease at the Watson Corporate Center, expanding its presence to 326,125 square feet.

Watson Land Company has leased more than 800,000 square feet during the fourth quarter of 2010 as inbound container volume through the ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach increased.
